who died June 19, 1883 ae. 29-10. She marr'd Nov. 25, 1890 Horace D. Clark.

Mr. S. went to Denmark 1842, 1859 - 1875 - 1879, had uncle Johannes Theodorus Suhr, who with his wife Caroline Falch made will Ap'l 20, 1850. J. P. had five brothers and sisters - one bro. and two sisters died - himself and two bros. alive Sep. 1870. His father was Diedtrecht and was a merchant in company with said brother Johannes Theodorus, Councillor of State. The Foundation of J. T. Suhr and of Caroline Falch his wife is in two Divisions - 1st of $700,000 for Suhr family; 2d of $200,000 for Mrs. Suhr's family - then in legacies to descendants of Copenhagen City Councillors, Judges of Appeals and City Court, members of Danish Diet, Magistrates etc. -

1st Division, $1000 - to be annually set aside for marriage outfits, until the fund is $10,000 - any surplus over the $10,000 after paying outfits is carried to the general funds. The outfit to be not less than $1000 and may be $2000 - or $3000. Those over 2000 and not over 3000

must have consent of the general meeting. Outfits (Art. 33) are allotted to maidens and widows whether the member of the family be bride or bridegroom - those engaged to be married within a year may be paid before the marriage by giving bond to return it if not married within the year - when "granted" before marriage may be received after marriage - not payable if application is not made and approved before marriage.

After payment of expenses the family annuities are to be paid half yearly (about $11,000 annually) then $2000 to be annually added to the capital for making new legacies of 500 & 250 each. Not over $4000 per year to be paid to any individual family - husband, wife and minor children. Legacies are for life and good behaviour - distributed by Board of Directors per Art. 14 - according to degree of consanguinity & pecuniary circumstances - may make exceptions on acct. of distress thro' unmerited misfortune - out of said $11,000 there shall be 12 legacies of 500 per year & 20 legacies of $250 set apart annually, $800 for legacies to servants in Mr. & Mrs. Suhr's family - 8 of $60 - and 8 of 40. Annual meetings of Representatives (composed of male descendants of Suhr family including husbands of female descendants who continue to act after death of their wifes) held in Nov'r at the latest. The Directors may call special meetings when deemed expedient by them or upon request of 5 Rep's - notice given in the Berlingske newspaper in Copenh'n or its successor. The Juridical director presides. The Rep's living abroad and in Jutland may be rep'd by proxy. The 4 Directors are chosen by the Rep's - 3 from the family & the 4th a lawyer not connected with the family, as the Juridical or managing director & accountant. The Rep's must be 20 years old - the Family Directors 25 years old. When there shall not be 3 of the family suitable for Directors, a person not of the family may be chosen Family Director. When the Rep's in the country are less than 5 including the family directors the City Councillors may supply the vacancy from their own body. Board of Directos to hold quarterly meetings. Family Directors receive no salary. Those living out of Copenhagen have $4 per diem & traveling expenses. Directors chosen for life - may for gross misconduct be removed by the tribunals on complaint of general meeting.
